

Letter of Recognition

Recipient: Muhammad Nadeem

Title: Senior Security Researcher

Date issued: January 5, 2026

To whom it may concern,

On behalf of Financemate GmbH, this letter recognizes the responsible reporting and disclosure of a security vulnerability identified within our system, which enabled a denial-of-service (DoS) attack on our notifications system.

We sincerely appreciate the professional, ethical, and responsible manner in which this issue was reported, as well as the clear technical detail and cooperation demonstrated throughout the disclosure and remediation process. Your contribution helped us identify and address a risk before it could be exploited maliciously.

Thank you for your valuable contribution to improving our security posture and for adhering to responsible disclosure practices, and look forward to working with you in the future.

Best regards,

Augusto Gesualdi,

CTO
